Setting up of a study group for promotion of Tourist Centres in Eastern State

*117. SHRIMATI SARLA MAHESHWARI:
SHRI MD. SALIM:

Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) what are the plans under Government's consideration to promote some major tourist centres in Eastern States;

(b) by when some of the projects are likely to be taken up;

(c) whether Government have set up any Study Group for this purpose; and

(d) if so, what are its achievements?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) and (b) Development of tourist centres in Eastern States is primarily the responsibility of the concerned State Governments. However, the centre extends financial assistance to the States on project to project basis. Sanction of funds to augment tourist facilities is a continuous process and as such no specific time limit could be indicated.

(c) The Government of India has setup Task Force I and II for Buddhist centres which includes centres in Bihar, Orissa and Sikkim in the Eastern region.

(d) Task Force-I has recommended certain action points to be taken up jointly by the Government of Bihar and Government of India. The OECF of Japan has approved loan assistance amounting to Japanese Yen 3314 million for projects related to buddhist centres in Bihar.

(a) whether the 24th February, 1993 was observed as Excise Day all over the country;

(b) if so, what are the details of the celebrations with background for such observance;

(c) whether this celebration included disposal of public grievances within some time limit; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) and (b) 24th February, 1993 was observed as Excise Day, by the Central Excise Collectorates all over the country. Government decided to observe the Day after considering a request made by the All India Federation of Central Excise Executive Officers to celebrate the Day, with a view to fostering a sense of pride and identity among the members of the service and to generate a feeling of camaraderie. The Day was to be celebrated by informative write ups/articles in newspapers/journals and magazines, holding seminars and lectures with participation by eminent persons in various fields, distribution of prizes and awards to field units/officers for outstanding work and organisation of cultural programmes and get-to-gethers.

(c) and (d) The celebrations did not include disposal of public grievances, as various fora for redressal of grievances of public/assessees already exist, like the Customs and Central Excise Advisory Council at the Centre and Regional Advisory Committees/Grievances Committees at the Collectorates' Headquarters providing effective opportunities for ventilation of general problems/specific grievances and redressal of the same.
